The home was decorated in red and green, and the guests spent a delightful afternoon, contesting for the prize, a work basket. Miss Mary Farris was the most consistent winner, and she was presented with a trophy. The guests were served with a dainty

Pinehurst Social News
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Pinehurst, N. C., December 31.—In a blaze of glory 1910 departed, the days of the year were filled with recreations and holiday merry-making. To-night all Pinehurst, at hotel and cottage, gathered for the old year and welcomed the new year in the old year and bridge. At the Holly Inn, the New Year's dance drew the entire colony, and in the large hall the old year was honored custom. Mr. and Mrs. C. Sinclair entertained, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tufts, of Boston, at the Holly Inn. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mumford of Brooklyn at the Yucca; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Metcalf, of Providence, at the Holly Inn. Among others who kept open house. After midnight the music was enjoyed at the Country Club, this afternoon, and a group of young people gathered at the Country Club to welcome young 1911, rounding out the early hours with brilliant story telling. The opening of the Hotel Carolina and its dining room was a most hospitable Saturday night is eagerly anticipated by all, marking as it does midwinter, the year's end, and more formal social activities. Thus it has been necessary to provide a room for the old friends here in advance of the opening of the Berkshire and Harvard which open January 1. A few are already gathered, and the dining room is filled to its comfortable capacity.

together in accordance with time honored custom. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sinclair entertained, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tuttle, of Boston, at the Myrtle; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. C. Ramsey, of Brooklyn, at the Yucca; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Metcalf, of Providence, at the Hawthorne, were among others who honored the occasion. Afternoon tea, with music, was enjoyed at the Country Club this afternoon, and a group of young people gathered there this evening to welcome young 1911, rounding out the early hours with freight story telling.

The opening of the Hotel Carolina has its attendant house-warming home upon the Cape next, is eagerly anticipated by all, marking as it does mid-season's commencement, and the more formal social activities. Thus early in the season it has been necessary to provide accommodations for old friends here in advance of the opening date, and at the Berkshire and Harvard, which open January 14, a few are already gathered, while the Holly Inn is filled to its comfortable capacity.
